

* ST. ANN'S CATHOLIC SCHOOL - DRESS CODE*

School uniforms are required to provide an atmosphere of mutual respect for persons. At St. Ann's, we want to foster a culture where children develop respect for each other based on their accomplishments, spirituality, personality and intellectuality and not based on what they wear.

General

- No logos of any kind, except for St. Ann's and "Eagles – St. Ann's School" approved logos.
- All students should have a neat and tidy appearance and all clothing should fit properly i.e. tucked in shirts and no over-sizing.
- No nail polish or makeup is allowed.
- All uniforms should be marked with the student's name.
- If, for some reason, the complete uniform cannot be worn, a written note of explanation must be sent to the school by the parent.

Uniform Availability

Parental support of the Dress Code will greatly assist our staff in fully implementing it.

Outdoor shoes and all headwear are to be taken off on the carpeted areas at the student entrances of the school. Non-marking inside shoes are to be worn inside the school and for gym class.

Parents will be notified in the newsletter or through a special notice if there is a day when uniforms are optional for all school students.
